Although this matter does not fall within one or more of the statutes listed in Local Rule 16-6(a), it does involve an employment-related claim of regarding the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994, 38 U.S.C. § 4301 et seq. The parties and their counsel believe that a settlement conference guided by the court at this early stage of the litigation would be beneficial and potentially fruitful and as such have agreed to stipulate to an early settlement conference before a neutral magistrate judge of this court. The requested early settlement conference is sought by the parties in good faith and not for the purposes of delay.
